PRICE, ONE CENT.

A LARCENY CASE IS BEING HARD FOUGHT.

THE VERDICTS IN OTHER CASES.

Adelaide Miner Convicted of Violating Mining Laws by Opening Safety Lamp on Duty—Routine of the Court—Dog Stealers Convicted.

Uniontown, March 14.—The theft of $450 from Charles M. Johnson and subsequent arrest of S. Howe Bonar, charged with the crime, occupied the attention of the court in Room No. 1 the better part of the morning. Bonar is accused of having taken a pocketbook containing three $100 bills, three $50 bills and a lease valued at $100 from a toilet room in the Exchange Hotel, Uniontown, on the night of December 22 last. Johnson alleges that he left the pocketbook in the toilet room reserved for guests on the second floor, and did not discover his loss until the next morning. Bonar was the only man on the second floor, and he was seen in the writing room of the hotel shortly after Johnson left the closet, about 11 o'clock that night.

It is alleged that Bonar had two of the $50 bills changed the next morning at the National Bank of Fayette County. This case is exciting much interest here today.

It took the jury but a few minutes to convict John Magari, a foreigner charged with violating the mining laws. Magari was charged by Mine Inspector T. D. Williams with unlocking a lighted safety lamp to ignite in another one. This occurred in Adelaide mine, alleged to be gaseous, on February 1. This case was heard in Court Room No. 2.

The second case before Judge Reppert this morning was that of John A. Province, Adam Smock and William Florence, charged with assault and battery and rioting by J. C. Higginbotham, a retail lumber dealer of Bridgeport. Higginbotham alleges that late on last Halloween night these young men with two others, William Gwynn and Walter Deady, created considerable disturbance around his place in Bridgeport and started to carry off a wagon and other articles. Higginbotham and wife, who were struck with a brick. He shot at the fellows and they hit one. Attorney R. P. Kennedy is for the defense, while Assistant District Attorney Hudson is being aided in the prosecution by Attorney H. A. Gorman.

A verdict was returned Tuesday afternoon in the case of John Smith, charged with malicious mischief by Anna Mackey, of not guilty, prosecutor to pay the costs.

Sad was the fate of Fish Younklin and John Cox, two tramps charged with purloining a dog belonging to M. M. Patterson of New Haven. It was alleged by Mr. Patterson that the two men stole a valuable collie dog named "Butt" from his place in Dunbar township on the night of February 9. The next morning the two men were seen in front of the Young House in Connellsville by James Ward, porter at that hostelry. Ward offered to buy the dog, but the men refused to sell it. A few weeks later Mr. Patterson's son and nephew were in Connellsville and Ward called their attention to Younklin, who was enjoying a few drinks at the Young House bar. The two men went in and questioned Younklin, who told the entire story, even giving the name of the collie and the disposition made of it. The animal was sold in Hyndman for $7.00. This voluntary statement on Younklin's part resulted in the arrest of the two men. On the witness stand both Younklin and Cox denied the allegations made against them. A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury. Several intermeddling companions of the two men were about the court house at the time and were neither sparing nor complimentary in their comments on the result of the verdict. This case was tried before Judge Reppert in Room No. 2.

The case of John Pokanico, charged with the larceny of a coat valued at $4.50 from Edward Gottman, was taken up immediately after the dog matter was disposed of. Gottman, who runs a store in Brownsville, alleges that Pokanico came to his store on November 18 and tried on several coats, none of which appeared to fit him.

Gottman left him to wait on another customer and the foreigner walked out of the establishment. This evening the coat of the suit was missing. It is seldom that suits are broken, and none of Gottman's clerks remembered selling the coat. Several weeks later Pokanico returned to the store and made some purchases, this time wearing two coats. A tailor, who has a shop next to Gottman's in the store at the time and was asked if he could not make Pokanico's coat fit better. The three men went into the tailor shop, and when Pokanico removed the outer coat Gottman recognized the inner one as that missing from his store. Pokanico said that he bought the coat down the street, but could not be more definite, and later when given a hearing before a Justice of the Peace in Brownsville declared that he bought the coat from Gottman. Attorney R. P. Kennedy is representing the defendant.

A verdict of not guilty and prosecutor to pay the costs was returned by the jury Tuesday evening.

Before Judge Umbel in the large court room the case of Mike Donadio, an agent for the Masonville Brewing Company, was taken up. Donadio was charged with selling liquor to Alva and George Blacey, both of New Haven, who are minors.

It took the jury until seven o'clock to reach an agreement in the case of Petro Wenick. A sealed verdict was returned this morning convicting Wenick of larceny of $40 from Vincenzo Donato.

ENGINEER M'INN IMPROVING

Injuries Will Not Likely Prove Fatal to Him.

Friends of Engineer John McMillin of South Connellsville, who was badly hurt near McKeesport on Monday while on his first regular run as an engineer, is improving at the Mercy hospital in Pittsburgh where he was taken after the accident. Mr. McMillin's skull is not fractured the physicians say. However, he is very badly injured and for some days will not be out of danger.

Engineer McMillin was struck on the back of the head by a protruding freight car wheel or door.

STOP SNOWBALLING.

Police Put An End to Several Warm Chats Between Boys on Tuesday Evening.

The police are paying particular attention to boys who have been in the habit of snowballing pedestrians along the streets. Last night the police stopped several snowballing matches and warned the boys that they could not engage in the sport along the streets. Several South Side youngsters were gathered in by the police and were taken in the direction of the station, but upon faithfully promising the officers that they would stop the dangerous practice they were permitted to go to their homes.

The practice is indulged in to the greatest extent after school hours and it is then that the officers will pay strict attention to them. All the boys have been warned, and unless they leave the streets to do their snowballing they will be taken and themselves before the Burgess one of these mornings.

FORMING A VETERAN ASSOCIATION.

Employees in an official capacity of the U. S. Steel Corporation and allied companies of the U. S. Steel Corporation are forming a veterans' association and Tuesday afternoon a meeting was held at the Smith House to further the plans for the organization. Those who attended the meeting Tuesday afternoon were Hugh Coffey, J. J. Tormay, J. A. Barabur, W. A. Todd, W. C. Mullin and V. W. Yabner. W. A. Todd is the acting president of the association and W. C. Mullin is acting secretary.

The plans for the association have not been fully decided upon and only the preliminary rules have been drafted and may be altered in a slight degree as the members may decide when a meeting of all those who are interested is held.

The plans provide for the membership of the association being made up of employees of the different steel corporation interests in the coke region who have served 20 or more years. So far as those interested in forming the association have compiled the list of eligibles to the association they have found 18 men who can belong to it. It is not likely that the number will be more than 20.

The object of the association is purely social and has no connection with the business world. The members will conduct it entirely upon a social plan and business will be deferred until all gatherings which are to be held at the members' homes at stated intervals. The promoters of the association hope to have plans perfected in a few weeks.

The boys' mother, Mrs. Sabeto, quickly as possible reported the affair to the police, who arrested Sabeto.

BAD APPRENTICES UP ON THE CARPET.

Seven Baltimore & Ohio shop apprentices were given a master in the ill-fortune of neglecting their work at the shops, master mechanic of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Connellville. Some of the apprentices have been forgetting all about their work and this came to the attention of Mr. Harrigan. He immediately issued an order for the appearance of the offending apprentices.

Mr. Harrigan spoke to the boys in a determined but friendly manner, telling them that they were wasting valuable time and betraying their parents' trusts, some of whom had used every effort to secure them their positions in the shops. He was severe in his arraignment of several of the boys, who are now musing manhood, stating to them that their first offense would result in their dismissal from the shops.

The rule requiring the apprentices to take instruction in mathematics and work pertaining to mechanical training was brought up and the boys were told that they must follow this rule in the future and devote themselves to night study of an hour or more three nights in the week.

A LARGE B. & O. PAY.

Pittsburg and Connellsville Division Men Will Draw Big Money.

FIGURES ON LOCAL DIVISIONS

Will Total in the Neighborhood of $210,000, Which is Phenomenal Considering That February Was a Short Month of Only 28 Days.

One of the largest amounts distributed among the employees of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad recently for the month of February was $210,000. The checks for the men arrived this morning from Cumberland on train No. 13 and at one o'clock this afternoon Mr. Towley began paying the men.

The office forces received their checks before noon when they arrive in the morning.

It is estimated that the pay rolls for this month, including the Connellsville and Pittsburg Divisions will total between $195,000 and $210,000. The men of the Connellsville Division and the employees on the Connellsville Division and branches of all of whom make their headquarters in Connellsville. Considering that February was a short month of only 28 days, the payroll is extremely heavy, few previous months in the history of the road comparing with it.

To pay out this amount of money will take the better part of two days, the employees of the Connellsville Division receiving their checks ahead of the Pittsburg Division men. Some will not receive their checks for several days, as they are absent on runs. The big amount of the money, however, will be distributed by noon tomorrow.

CITIZENS ARE BARRED.

Ohioyle, March 14.—The town Council met as usual in the Borough hall Monday evening and after transacting the regular monthly business the old Council stopped down and out, turning the affairs of the borough over into the hands of the new Council. This was a rather important move and involved quite a bit of time, as the usual number of lobbyists were present to express their opinion as to the future success of Ohioyle under the rule of the new Councilmen.

An ordinance was passed several months ago by Council prohibiting the entrance of any outsiders into the Council chamber during a meeting of that body, but as it was never enforced, the lobbyists were always present. Under the new will of the new Council things will take a different trend and those who opposed to this or that rule. The new Councilmen sworn to by Burgess Radcliffe War were: J. W. Clark, John Nicholson, E. H. Kennedy, W. R. Johnson and W. B. Jackson. They immediately took charge of borough affairs, electing W. B. Jackson president; W. R. Johnson, town clerk; J. W. Clark, E. H. Kennedy and John Nicholson, street committee; D. P. Callahan and H. C. Jones, police committee. J. L. Cunningham was appointed chief of police. After instructing the secretary to post notices to the effect that a street commission was yet wanted, the application for this position to be made at the next regular meeting, the Council adjourned to meet again the second Monday in April.

COKE MAY PICK UP.

Probability of Coal Strike Will Help This District.

The probability of a strike of the bituminous and anthracite coal miners is likely to help the coke trade in the Connellsville region, which has been slumping off for two weeks past. Lay-offs days were numerous throughout the region last week and this and many others went out of blast, because the consumers were overstocked.

Since the situation between the miners' union and operators has assumed such strained relations demand for coke has again picked up. Orders have been given in all quarters to store coal and coke. The United States Steel Corporation is in better shape for coal than the independent mills and manufacturers. They can use coal from the Connellsville district in their mills if forced to. Eastern consumers of raw materials are making inquiry for coke this week.

DRUMMER RETREATED FIRST

Then a Snowball With a Stone Core Put the Cornet Out of Commission. Orders Have Gone Out Against the Practice.

Special to The Courier.

Scottville, March 14.—Snowballing of riotous proportions made the streets uncomfortable and dangerous to innocent travelers yesterday. When the schools dismissed for the noon hour Pittsburgh and Chestnut street corner became a storm center, which was so violent as to break up the street parade of a "rube" band, with a show billed for the Geyer Opera House in the evening. A mob of youngsters had attacked the players further down street, and the first to succumb was the man with the big bass drum. The thump of snowballs thrown with vicious fervor against the drumheads broke the time. To save the drum and himself, the drummer retreated.

The wind-jammers tried to continue their part, but were driven to seek refuge in Stauffer's meat market. One of them had a fine cornet damaged by a snowball, the core of which was formed of a stone. Nearly a hundred yelling youngsters surrounded the meat market and fired volleys without regard to windows, people or anything else.

Principal Edgar Reed coming along at this time subdued the gang and the musicians were permitted to get back to their hotel. The snowballing continued intermittently all day. The matter has been reported to the police by the people who think that snowballing of pedestrians, men, women and children, as has been the custom here, is a species of disorderly and, often worse, than the appearance of drunken men on the streets, as proven by the death of a school child in Connellsville from the effects of being struck by a snowball.

SIGNIFICANT TURN

Washington, March 14.—[Special.]—An interesting and significant fact has developed in the railroad rate situation. In the Senate, Aldrich, representing the Interstate Commerce Commission, has notified the other side that they desire to vote. This of course means that he and his colleagues are confident of having votes enough to write into the Hepburn bill the amendments they want. Aldrich's challenge has not been accepted and it begins to look as if the opponents to omit it review proposition realize that the other side are sparring for time.

TAFT RAPS BOSSISM.

With Roosevelt He Accepts Membership in Cincinnati Anti-Cox Club.

GIVES REMARKABLE ADVICE

Cincinnati, March 14.—President Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft were last night unanimously elected honorary members of the Roosevelt Republican club of this city. This club is a new organization formed after the recent election as an instrument for the maintenance of a Republican organization, "opposed to bossism and machine politics."

In a long letter of acceptance of the honor for himself and President Roosevelt, Secretary Taft makes some striking statements. Referring to the recent defeat of George B. Cox as a political leader in this city, the secretary says that this is a great step toward good municipal government, "but its benefit may be largely lost if the people put themselves on the back with the pleasant idea that the machine is broken up and that the future will take care of itself. The truth is that the victory will be worse than fruitless unless some means are devised to make its effects permanent. It is idle to hope that people may be aroused at every political contest to defeat machine states unless there are counter organizations made up of young men actuated by the patriotic desire to select only good candidates."

He advises against the club becoming a "better than thou" association, which he says would defeat its own object by its exclusiveness and lack of practical sense. Continuing he says:

"The assistance of men of honesty and character who were associated, more or less, with the machine when it seemed all powerful, but really rejoice now at what seems its downfall, ought not to be rejected, if you find it offered in good faith."

"The members of such a club as the Roosevelt club, although an orthodox Republican organization, may very well decline to support the candidates of its own party, if such candidates are plainly lacking in the qualifications according to the standard which they may properly set for the selection of public officers. Still it is well to use a wise discretion in bolting. The important question will always be in what way you can secure and exercise the greatest influence for good, and you cannot afford in practical politics (and there is no other politics) to ignore the strength which adherence to regularity gives you as a club in working reforms within the party."

PATTISON GIVEN FREE HAND

Columbus, O., March 14.—A caucus of the Democratic senators has decided to relieve all committees of the recent appointments of Gov. Harkness at once and reject the entire list of appointments—Democrats and Republicans alike. There are 68 such appointments pending. The rejection of the appointments will leave Gov. Patterson free to make new appointments as soon as he wishes, the present incumbent holding on until he does so.

Among the most important offices that will thus be made vacant are those of state railroad commissioner, state labor commissioner, state shop inspector, state care of soldier claims, state insurance commissioner, state fire marshal, state printer and the two state oil inspectorships.

The only Democrat who will be thus removed from a remunerative office is J. W. Dover of Erie, Pa., father of Elmer Dover and a trustee of the Broadfield reformatory. The other Democrats who will fall by this decision are members of Institution boards.

SUNNYSIDE MEETING.

J. J. Barnhart Writes of the Union Chapel at That Place.

Sunny Side, March 13.—The meeting at the Summit has closed and it was a perfect success under the leadership of Brother A. R. Seaman, one who worked most faithfully to make it a success. Mr. Seaman carried the meeting on for five or six weeks, coming here from South Connellsville every night. He came when many thought it would be impossible for him to get here, but he persevered until there was a membership of 61.

I saw in a recent issue of The Courier an article which I don't propose to criticize, but would like to make an explanation so that no one may be misled. In 1881 I purchased of Jacob Henderson a farm and on it was a store room, which was used by the contractors who made the cut through the farm. Joseph Cropp and T. F. Stoner came to me and offered to purchase the room for the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. I told the gentlemen that I would not sell it for that purpose, but would donate the house and ground for all Orthodox denominations to preach in, but in no case could there be any denominational organization. So the article was drawn up and Joseph Cropp, T. F. Stoner and Mart Stoner as trustees raised the money, repaired the room and placed seats in it. It has been a place of worship ever since, a Union Sunday school meeting there regularly and it has been supported by young and old alike.

Brother Seaman came here about 13 or 14 years ago and undertook to build an organization and failed. He returned about five years ago and all that he asked was his car fare. When he commenced his meetings here he gave out that he wanted to save souls and the converts could choose for themselves what church they wanted to join. But towards the close of the meetings he changed his action and wanted an organization, which was contrary to the article of agreement. Instead he was offered a Union organization the same as it had been here before and I suppose that was what led Brother Seaman to write the article in The Courier. He also said that Mr. C. E. Reed had been coming out here for some time, but we have fulfilled our contract. Mr. Seaman only asked for his car fare and I think he got a great deal more, as he took up a collection almost every time he came.

If Rev. Seaman discontinues his visits here it will be on his own account as the people do not desire him to do so, as they have not discharged him, but wish him well.

Vinol THE COD LIVER PREPARATION WITHOUT OIL

Vinol is fast superseding old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions because, without a drop of oil or disagreeable feature, it contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cod's livers. By our process the oil, having no value either as a medicine or food, is separated from the medicinal elements and thrown away. Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, Vinol is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, and therefore unequaled as a body builder and strength creator for old people, puny children, weak, run-down men and women, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases. Everything Vinol contains is named on the label.

OUR GUARANTEE—We have such faith in VINOL that if you will take it we promise if it does not benefit or cure you we will return you your money without question. We take all the risk.

TRICKS IN OIL TRADE.

Former Agent of Standard
Describes Their Method of

SPY ON OPPONENTS' BUSINESS

Every Shipment of Oil Made by Independent Agent Reported to Standard and Customer is Taken Away by Underhand Work.

Kansas City, Mo., March 14.—Francis M. Coker, of the late Standard Oil Company, has been called to testify before the committee on the Standard Oil Company, during the investigation into the alleged methods of the Standard Oil Company in discriminating against independent oil men hereabouts. Repeated efforts had been made to get from Coker an admission that there was any connection between the Standard Oil Company, the Republic Oil Company, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, and other companies "to all questions Mr. Coker answered, 'I don't know.'"

At the close of his testimony Mr. Coker asked him: "Tell this commission, are the Republic Oil Company and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company part of the Standard Oil Company?" "I don't know, sir."

"What is your best impression about it?" "I have none."

"Don't you feel and know in your heart that they are all part and parcel of the same company?" "I do not know."

Then the veteran ex-senator slapped the desk with his fist and said, as he rose: "I have none."

Called Down by Coker. "I am tired and sick of this effort made by Standard Oil people to conceal this fact when every man, woman and child knows it is so. Now, every body wants the truth told here and why don't you tell it?" Every man ought to stand upon his own bottom and you take ought not to dodge this question further."

Mr. Coker, formerly agent at Topeka, Kan., for the Standard Oil Company but now an independent dealer with offices at Joplin and Springfield, Mo., testified Mr. Will Hoyt said that while agent for the Standard Oil Company he was instructed to watch all shipments of oil to that point, and to ascertain the name of the shipper and the point of distribution.

Will Hoyt said that by keeping track of the shipments made by their competitors the Standard was enabled to know the names of every dealer who was buying oil from independent sources. "It enabled me," he said, "to go to each of my competitors and either tell him up to us with a contract or out the price so that he lost money on the oil he received from independent refiners."

Tricks of the Standard. Before going to Topeka for the Standard Will Hoyt said he had been a traveling agent for that company with headquarters at Wichita, Kan., and said that while at Wichita an independent refiner in Pueblo the Rocky Mountain Oil Company, shipped a car load of oil to a wholesale grocer in Kansas City, Kan. "I was notified of the number of the car," said Will Hoyt, "and was told to go there and tie up the grocer with a contract to buy all his oil from us or to maintain our price in his territory. This dealer refused to contract although I offered him oil for a dollar a barrel, or two cents a gallon less than we were selling it in the open market. I reported this to my superior officer, and he ordered me to go back and tie up that dealer in a contract no matter how much of a cut in price I had to make. Before I returned the Rocky Mountain Oil Company had failed in business."

I N. Krapp, an oil producer and shipper of Chautauque, Kan., was the next witness. He testified that when the Standard raised the rate on oil from 10 to 17 cents from Chautauque to Kansas City it put him out of the ship ping business.

WILLING TO BE MARTYR

Mankato, Minn., March 14.—An eventful day occurred at the doors of the cathedral. The local authorities attempted to take an inventory under the church and state separation law, whereupon the bishop, wearing his mitre and surrounded by the congregation, threatened the authorities to enter the cathedral, saying: "If before the altar, I announce that I am prepared to suffer imprisonment, exile or death in defending the rights of the church."

The authorities withdrew in order to avoid trouble. The cathedral will be closed by day and night and guards who will keep regular watches have been ordered to resist the government inspectors.

Big Gasper's Love Again. Casey Kuss, March 14.—The great gas well six miles from here which was capped yesterday, with a huge iron hood, after it had burned without restraint for 17 days, consuming millions of feet of gas, burst forth again today. After having confined the fire for 12 hours, the hood was perforated by the tremendous force of sand and debris beneath it and soon became a source of gas and steam.

DEATH BEHIND SCENES

Washington, March 14.—William Thomas of Saginaw, Mich., a member of the chorus of the "Wonderland" company performing at the Columbia theatre, committed suicide last night by drinking carbolic acid while the play was in progress.

Thomas was an admirer of Ida Gordon, a 16 year old girl also a member of the company, and who is said to live in New York City. The suicide was caused by disappointment because she would not reciprocate his attentions. After the show was over, Miss Gordon went to the hospital to which Thomas had been removed, and on seeing his body said: "I did not know he thought so much of me. I did not mean to break his heart. He misjudged me." Thomas was 22 years old.

The couple were in the property room of the theater. Thomas sat on the side of a table with a goblet in one hand and a bottle in the other. Pouring out the poison, he accused her of playing with his affections and saying, "Good bye, old girl," drank the poison before she could stop him. The play continued uninterrupted, the audience not being aware of what had transpired.

PLAYWRIGHT MURDERED

New York, March 14.—Louis Delange, a playwright, whose home was formerly in Philadelphia, was found dead in his room in West 142nd street when his brother went to awaken him. His throat had been cut.

The police believe he met his death by foul play. They base their suspicions on a statement made by the dead man's sister in law, Mrs. Alexander O. Delange. About 4 o'clock in the morning she heard the playwright's voice and went to his room. She found him lying on the floor, his throat cut. She also heard a scuffle and a voice exclaim, "Oh God, don't do that!"

Going to the balcony she saw a young man leave the playwright's room and go out of the house. This man Mrs. Delange said acted as if intoxicated. She listened and heard nothing more from her brother's room until he was found dead.

DOWIE AND WIFE PART

Chicago, March 14.—John Alexander Dowie, head of the Zion church, and his wife have parted, according to a story printed in the Daily News. It is declared that the last message of Dowie to his home was ignored and that Mrs. Dowie has thrown in her lot with the ordinary followers of Zion.

It is asserted that Mrs. Dowie has said to her friends that she had been deceived as to the real conditions in the church and believed that millions of money were available when there was no such condition existing.

Mrs. Dowie has called in brokers who made an inventory of the furnishings of the Dowie home in Zion city which is located in a most expensive manner. She said she expected to sell everything for the good of the church and that when the furnishings had been sold, the house itself was at the disposal of the society.

TAKE OVER MORE LINES

Pennsylvania to Annex Southwest Branch and Allegheny Valley.

Philadelphia, March 14.—The principal business transacted at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania railroad was the adoption of a resolution authorizing the acquisition of additional lines for this purpose. The directors were authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of acquiring the Southwest Pennsylvania railway which extends through the coke region from Greensburg to Connellsville and Uniontown, the York Haven & Pottsville railroad, the Erie and Allegheny Valley railway forming a connection between the main line at Pottsville and the Erie road at Driftwood.

One Man's Thirst Causes Strike. Youngstown O. March 14.—Because one man was refused admission to the works of the Valley, plant of the Republic Iron & Steel company after a brief absence, 60 puddlers and helpers are on strike. As a result the entire concern was closed down throwing 1,000 men out of employment. The company asserts that it is a violation of their agreement with the Amalgamated association for employees to leave the plant between heats.

Sister Appeals for Brother's Life. St. Petersburg, March 14.—Isabel Schmidt, sister of Lieut. Schmidt, the leader of the naval mutiny at Sebastopol who was sentenced to be hanged, appealed to the court of cassation to have a personal appeal to Premier Witte for a commutation of her brother's sentence. It now appears that the prisoner was not pardoned by the emperor as reported.

Barbarous Abandons. Says Author. London, March 15.—Andrew Carnegie's spelling reform movement finds little favor with British authors. Charles Algernon Swinburne describes the movement as a mon strous, barbarous absurdity.

WONDERFUL WEALTH

Oil is a vastly greater source of riches to the United States than gold, silver or copper. Statistics show that oil leads in money all of the mineral products of America, and can be produced at one-tenth of the cost of mining gold, silver or copper. The most oil products of the United States at the wells, for the year 1905, were worth $150,000,000. Converted by the refineries into gasoline, kerosene, paraffine, wax, lubricating oil, vasoline, paraffine, and a thousand other by products this value was easily quadrupled or advanced to the stupendous sum of $600,000,000, turning out an equivalent of 600 new millionaires. This in turn is a grand annual distribution of the equivalent of 1,200,000 in sums of $500 each, 600,000 of $1,000 each, 300,000 of $2,000 each, 120,000 of $5,000 each, 60,000 of $10,000 each.

In some of the older fields the oil deposits are not producing sufficiently to keep abreast of the enormous increase in demand but in various parts of the country new and powerful corporations are opening up new fields, determined to secure a share of the enormous profits that are embodied in successful oil operations. In Kansas the oil wealth is great almost beyond comprehension, and the development of the past three years seems to be only a beginning of what is to come.

There need be no hesitation in saying that one of the strongest motives in testing and best managed of Kansas corporations is the Coffeyville Oil Company, of Philadelphia, operating in the Coffeyville field. It is a most successful company, and its management is of the highest order.

28 Inch Natural Color Linen, 18c a Yd.

EVERY woman knows that linen is the most wanted wash fabric of the times. That it launders better and looks nicer than most any other washable fabric. There's a neatness about it, too, that is universally admired.

Now, the linen we mention in this card is an extraordinary Linen for the money.

It comes to us direct from Ireland, home of finest linens.

There are only three houses in the United States that carry this particular quality of linen, one in the East, one in the West, and ourselves. The other two houses ask 25c for it. 28 Inches Wide Remember.

Christie Brown has attained her greatest success in "As You Like It," in which she will be seen at the Colonial Theatre tonight. And this success came in a surprising degree to the notice herself at the time she first essayed the role of Rosalind in New York. When Brown was at the Theatre Francaise, Miss Christie's manager, Maurice Campbell, had reserved a certain number of weeks at the theatre for the star with the intention of offering her the part of the heroine called for "As You Like It." In which two weeks were Henry's education. Success and fame were to be wondered at, but it has become so attractive and so popular with American theatregoers. Musicals comedy and extravaganzas are so readily intermixed that the result is an entertainment that is pleasing to all tastes. The main advantage of fairy stories lends itself admirably to the purposes of extravaganzas, and in "The Wizard" every advantage has been taken of the opportunity to produce a performance that can scarcely be described otherwise than extraordinary.

Two Slaves Get in Trouble and Spend Night in Lockup.

THEY WERE INNOCENTLY CAUGHT

In a South Arch Street House Where They Had Been Invited by a Negro Runner—Burgess May Soon Order Cleaning Up.

South Arch street yesterday afternoon furnished another case for the police court. Officer McCudden saw two white men enter the domicile of Eliza Suttles, colored, whose reputation in police circles is not so good and he went to the house where he arrested George Crouse and Mike Hagood, two Magyars. The men could not talk English and were confined in the police station until this morning when their tale was interpreted by Felix Rutsek.

The men stated that they were on their way to the Magyar Catholic Church when a big negro called them into the yard to help him lift something. He then took them into the house and mentioned to them to sit down. They did so and then a big fat negro woman came around and made them understand that she wanted to get them girls. They replied "No" just as the police came in the door.

Burgess Solsson told Mr. Rutsek to interpret a talking to them about stopping in joints like that again for any purpose and the men replied very politely that it was the last time that they would help anyone out.

Unless the negro section of South Arch street becomes more respectable there will be a wholesale cleaning out of the undesirable district and some of the numerous negroes of that section will be changing their residences for the county jail. The names of the foreigners and their residences at Mt. Braddock were taken and they will be used as witnesses in the future. Burgess Solsson says that the whole outfit will have to go.

Henry Williams of Lefseburg No. 3 was arrested on Main street yesterday afternoon for being drunk and disorderly. According to Officer McCudden's report he threatened to kill Constable Louis Overman, but was not arrested by him. Williams acknowledged his guilt and was fined $5. Several of his friends offered to put up the money for his release but he would not permit it to be done, saying that he was in no hurry to depart from the police station.

John Lebas of Clearfield county got a crazy jag on yesterday afternoon and was walking down street yelling and howling when he was arrested. He tried to break down the bars of his cell last night but was unsuccessful. He was very meek this morning but was fined $5.

A. R. Somers of Scottdale went on a rampage in the lavatory of the Smith House and had to be taken out by an officer. He was fined $5 or five days. Daniel Jenkins of Pittsburg came home to 10 to work but instead got drunk. He was given 48 hours for his offense.

BOXING MATCH.

Lovers of good boxing will see a good bout at the Gayety theatre next Monday evening. Billy Yourall, the colored welter-weight, who has a record in the East and West as a clever fighter with many victories to his credit, and Ed Given of Pittsburg, will meet for ten rounds. Both boxers have been in the professional ring for a number of years. Yourall has boxed in Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland and Denver. Given has not had as long a career or as much experience, but he has made good this winter in Pittsburg where some rattling bouts have been held.

The match is at catch weights. Yourall in condition weighs about 140 pounds. He can fight nicely, however, at 145 to 150. Given weighs in condition 145, so the men are evenly matched.

There will be two preliminaries to the main bout. All of them will follow with short waits, so the crowd will not grow impatient. The participants in the preliminary bouts will be local boys. The referee will be chosen at the ring side. Tom Baxter is managing the show.

Licensed to Marry. Adolphus Hampton and Mary E. Eggleston, both of Lemont Furnace, have been licensed to marry.

It appears that we were mistaken in the sex of our friend, Clyde Euloy's child yesterday; it was a girl instead of a boy.

It snowed without ceasing yesterday but the temperature was about high enough to melt it as it fell so that there was about the same amount of snow on the ground yesterday evening that there was in the morning.

A. C. Jones, value foreman at the Wharton coke plant, is still confined to the house on account of the foot he got injured last Saturday. He will have to be off some time yet. Jacob Stuck is filling his position during his absence.

He says it was rotten to the core, as he will show in his article.

Watch for our new story. P. A. Rankin and Mrs. J. R. Vance are reported as being on the sick list. Mrs. Vance had just recovered from a stage of illness of several weeks' duration and took a relapse.

The first prize, a cushion cover was captured by Miss Irene Hazlett, the second prize, a dainty hand made handkerchief was carried off by Mrs. Charles Dix. At the close of the games luncheon was served. The various amusements were prettily decorated for the occasion with carnations and roses being used. There were 30 guests present.

WITH BALL AND CHAIN

How Culprits Will Work Out Penalties on Scottdale Streets.

SAVE OUT THE FINE MONEY.

Some of the Street Workers Have Sought Swift Flight and New Means Must Be Had to Keep Them at Their Tasks.

Special to The Courier.

Scottdale, March 14.—These gentlemen of bibulous tastes and roasting proclivities would over do well in retreating in their purses sufficient coin, not alone for car fare, but for fine money whenever they transgress the borough laws relative to good order. For if they are unable to pay their fines and costs when found guilty they will have set before them hours of toil upon the borough streets, and it is likely under the restraining weight of ball and chain or loblives.

Such is the mandate of Burgess William Ferguson. Those who dance shall pay the piper. If they do not pay their fines and costs their manual strength will be made valuable on the borough thoroughfares. Some of the non-payers have already been tried as street workers, but not having upon their persons any weight incompatible with speedy flight, some of them have escaped. Street Commissioner T. B. May has worked out some of them. He refuses, however, to cause the culprits when they flee, and no wonder. Strange and weird stories are told in the suburbs of prisoners flying from the borough. It would take a swift sprinter to catch them. And street commissioners are not employed alone for their sprinting records.

When Zach English was street commissioner he prevented flight a few times by threatening to spit from atop a brickbat with his shovel any prisoner trying to escape. None was hardy enough to stand against the threat.

The Police Committee of Council is wrestling with the problem of retaining prisoners working on the streets. What method they will devise is not known. But no one of ordinary wisdom will get himself in the unpleasant predicament of being without money to pay his fine.

THE FIREMEN'S ROOMS.

Scottdale Lads Lay Down Directions for Their Quarters.

Scottdale, March 14.—The Scottdale Volunteer Fire Department have recently fixed up their rooms in the borough building in splendid shape and intend to have the rooms put to their proper use only.

The following committee has been appointed: Roy Baker, R. J. Stickle, Smith Hamilton, E. S. Baldwin and Samuel Kelly. Today they put up the following rules: "All persons are warned not to enter these rooms for any pretext whatever, unless they be firemen, accompanied by a fireman or official of the borough. Summary proceedings will be taken against anyone found entering these rooms or disobeying the rules and regulations laid down here-with. Not more than one person may accompany a fireman to these rooms unless it be for the express purpose of inspecting the rooms or apparatus of the department.

"The drinking of intoxicating liquors is positively forbidden in these rooms. Each fireman will be allowed to bring one friend once a week to enjoy the privileges of these rooms."

Cellar Flooded. Scottdale Borough Building Was Left in Ugly Plight by Water.

Scottdale, March 14.—A closed up sewer caused trouble at the borough building yesterday and last night, having filled the cellar nearly full of water, when Janitor Henry Dial got around in the morning. The water had risen high in the two big gas furnaces situated in the cellar, and which heat the building, and an explosion was imminent, when Street Commissioner T. B. May, who is possessed of high rubber boots, waded into the flooded cellar and shut off the gas. He at once went to work to locate the trouble, but it was a long and ugly job before it was found, the gas turned on again and the big building warmed up.

Blue Bird Averaged. Taney Brown and Joseph Pamomhu, two Italians of Derry Station, are serving 70 days each in the Westmoreland county jail for killing a blue bird.

ROAD REFORM.

No county in the western part of the State has done so much to advance road improvement as Washington, says the Philadelphia Press. For many years the authorities of the county have been agitating for good roads, and the Republican platform every year since 1902 has declared for them. These have had their effect. At the election last month each of the 33 townships in Washington county voted on the question of abolishing the system of working out road taxes, and in 22 of them the voters have abolished it. The others still need some missionary work, and will get it no doubt. The proportion of townships which have voted for a cash road tax is very significant. It is just about a reverse of the proportion in the average of counties through the latest census of the State, though in some counties every township voted to continue the work system.

What Washington has just done is merely supplementary to the good work it has done for ten years. It is one of the few counties, possibly the only except Allegheny, which has taken advantage of the act of 1905. It has a population of but 92,000, but it has issued $400,000 of county road bonds, and the Commissioners will issue $35,000 more within a month. Besides the roads already built by the county or now under construction, the Grand Jury has approved additional petitions for roads which will cost $240,000. The advantage of the act of 1905 for the farmers is that the cost of good roads falls uniformly on all property which is taxable for county purposes.

The enterprising conditions in Washington county are largely due to persistent advocacy under a leadership that has had public confidence. Congressman Anderson is entitled to no small share of the credit for the good roads spirit so earnestly displayed by the people. Washington has been made a county to pattern after in this particular.

The Two Vanrevels

BY BOOTH TARKINGTON

Here is a love story to satisfy the most romantic—a real story about people who might have been real; people through whose veins the red blood, stirred alternately by love and hate, surges tumultuously.

"The Two Vanrevels," says a writer, is at least as good as "The Gentleman from Indiana" and "Monsieur Beaucaire" put together, since it combines all the best elements of both books.

And this is saying a whole lot.

Unquestionably the best thing Mr. Tarkington has done.—New York Press.

The merits that recommend Mr. Tarkington's novel are an original and gripping plot, a romantic daintiness and grace that give it due to dramatic strength, and a well conceived and well developed hero-villain.—New York Mail and Express.
